David A. Case, Rutgers University, USA

Hai-Feng (Frank) Ji, Drexel University, USA

The meeting reflected various sessions, in which discussions were held on the following major scientific tracks:

- Elemento-Organic and Inorganic Chemistry
- Environmental Chemistry and Green Chemistry
- Advances & Applications in Bioinformatics & Chemistry
- Nanochemistry

- Chemistry Education and Research
- Materials Chemistry and Polymers Chemistry
- Medicinal and Clinical Chemistry
- Biological and Physical Chemistry
- Biochemistry
- Chemical Engineering and Advanced Chemistry
- Radiochemistry, Nuclear Chemistry and Electrochemistry
- Analytical and Bio-Analytical Chemistry
- Chemical Biology and Food Lipid Chemistry
- Pesticide Chemistry and Toxicology
- Petrochemistry
- Industrial Chemistry
- Computational Catalysis and Surface Chemistry
- Bio-Inorganic and Medicinal Chemistry
- Forensic Chemistry

Madridge Conferences also took the privilege of felicitating ECC-2020 Organizing Committee, Editorial Board Members of International Journal of Chemistry and Research (IJCR), Keynote Speakers, Chair and Co-Chairs, Moderator and Exhibitor who supported this event.

With the grand success of ECC-2020, Madridge Conferences is proud to announce the "4th European Chemistry Conference" on March 26, 2021.
